

9th Annual

National Native American Law Students Association

WRITING COMPETITION

Hosted by the University of Arizona NALSA Chapter

Topic: Advanced topics in Tribal, Indian, or Indigenous law or policy

1st place $2000    2nd place $1000    3rd place $500

The winning article will be published in the

Arizona Journal of International & Comparative Law

Papers covering any of the following are eligible:

- Tribal law and policy
- International law and policy concerning indigenous peoples
- Comparative law (i.e. intertribal or government-to-government studies)

Papers will be judged on criteria including: originality, timeliness of topic, quality and creativity of analysis, knowledge and use of relevant law, grammar, punctuation, and citation style.

Registration forms and payment must be postmarked by December 18, 2009 at 5PM MST Papers must be submitted via email by the same deadline.

Papers must be submitted by the deadline in PDF format with no information revealing your identity within the document. A submission identification number will be assigned to you by the Competition Administrator. Include your name and the title of your paper in the body of the e-mail but do not include this information in the document itself.

Entries and questions can be directed to Jordan Thompson at mjthomps@email.arizona.edu

For complete rules visit: www.nationalnalsa.org