

OUR COUNTRY, OUR WORLD IN A “POST-RACIAL” ERA

THIRD NATIONAL PEOPLE OF COLOR LEGAL SCHOLARSHIP CONFERENCE

SEPTEMBER 9-12, 2010

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

Student Writing Competition

The six regional People of Color Scholarship conferences (Mid-Atlantic, Midwestern, Northeast, Southeast, Southwest, and Western) will convene for the Third National People of Color Legal Scholarship Conference. For conference details, see http://law.shu.edu/About/News_Events/thirdnationalpoc/index.cfm.

Students are invited to submit papers that may, but need not, be related to our broad conference theme, Our Country, Our World in a “Post-Racial” Era. First and Second Place winners will be given the opportunity to present their papers at the National Conference, as guests of the Conference, and will be given a cash prize.

FIRST PLACE:

- $1,000 Cash Award.
- All Expense Paid Trip (airfare, hotel, registration) to the conference.

SECOND PLACE:

- $500 Cash Award.
- All Expense Paid Trip (airfare, hotel, registration) to the conference.

HONORABLE MENTION:

May be available for other meritorious submissions.

ELIGIBILITY: The competition is open to all current J.D. candidates in good standing enrolled in a law school located in the United States and its territories during the 2009-2010 academic year.

FORMAT: Each entry should be a scholarly piece fit for publication in a law review, and accommodate blind review. Preference will be given to entries of 25,000 words or less. Entries should follow standard footnote formatting, no smaller than 9-point font, and be submitted in English. The main text should be in 12-point font and double-spaced with one-inch margins on all sides of each page. Published papers or papers already accepted for publication are ineligible. Only one paper per entrant will be considered.

SUBMISSION: Entries must be submitted electronically, in either Word or pdf format, on or before June 15, 2010, to Professor andre cummings, West Virginia University College of Law, andre.cummings@mail.wvu.edu.
