

Clerk at the Native American Rights Fund!

The Native American Rights Fund (NARF), the leading legal organization fighting for Native rights in the U.S., has available positions for Summer 2012 Law Clerks! The Native American Rights Fund is committed to the professional development of new attorneys in the field of Indian law. Each year NARF conducts a nationwide search for law school students to participate in its clerkship program in all three of its offices (Boulder, CO; Anchorage, A.K.; and Washington, D.C.). NARF is looking for law students who will have completed their second year of law school by this summer. Ideal applicants will have previous employment experience and/or coursework involving Native American law.

The application deadline is October 31, 2011. Please include in the application:

- 1) Cover Letter
- 2) Resume
- 3) Legal writing sample
- 4) Law school transcript
- 5) Three letters of recommendation

This summer position pays $17/hour.
