Michigan Indian Legal Services (MILS), a statewide provider of free legal services to low income Indians and Indian tribes, seeks to hire an attorney fellow under a one-year contract. MILS represents Indian individuals, families, tribes and organizations in cases involving federal Indian law, tribal court representation and related matters.

The attorney fellow position will be located in Traverse City, Michigan and is full-time position with benefits. MILS seeks an attorney with above average academic achievement, excellent oral and written communication skills and a commitment to providing high quality legal services for Indian people. The successful candidate should be licensed to practice law in the State of Michigan, be willing and able to travel, capable of assuming responsibility over a sophisticated caseload and have experience in the practice of Indian law and working in or with native or tribal communities. Compensation will be commensurate with experience.

MILS is an equal opportunity employer.

Send resume, writing sample, references, law school transcript (if in practice for less than 3 years), and cover letter to:
