

Senate Committee on Indian Affairs

Protecting our Fish and Wildlife Resources

ROUNDTABLE

Hosted by Loretta A. Tuell, Majority Staff Director/Chief Counsel

Date: Tuesday, April 24, 2012

Time: 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Location: Committee Hearing Room
628 Dirksen Senate Office Building
Washington, DC

Topics: The Committee is interested in hearing about the various issues tribes and native communities are facing in conserving, managing, and protecting their fish and wildlife resources. Topics will include:

- Promoting sustainable practices to ensure healthy populations of fish and wildlife
- Preserving hunting, fishing, and gathering rights and access to traditional food sources
- Incorporating traditional knowledge in federal policy and decision-making
- Co-management of fish and wildlife resources
- Promoting cultural preservation through intergovernmental cooperation

RSVP: Please let us know if you plan to attend this event and what issues you are most interested in addressing.

- By phone: Christiane Cardoza at 202-224-2251; or
- E-mail: roundtable@indian.senate.gov