The speaker is Matthew L.M. Fletcher, Professor of Law and Director of the Indigenous Law and Policy Center at Michigan State University College of Law, and member of the Grand Traverse Tribe of Ottawa and Chippewa Indians. He will be speaking on "The Story of the Grand Traverse Band's Treaty Rights Fight."

Professor Fletcher's talk is designed to complement our fall 2012 Legends Exhibit. It highlights three of the "Legends" of the Traverse area: Art Duhamel of the Grand Traverse Band, well known for his stands regarding native fishing rights and federal recognition of the Grand Traverse Band; The Schaub family and their famous relative, Emelia Schaub, who was the first female prosecutor in Michigan; and Augusta Rosenthal-Thompson, the first woman physician to practice in this area.
