

ATTORNEY POSITION
LITIGATION AND EMPLOYMENT UNIT
NAVAJO NATION DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

November 15, 2013

The Navajo Nation Department of Justice is seeking an energetic and motivated attorney to work in the newly formed Litigation and Employment Unit. The qualified applicant will focus on litigation for the Navajo Nation government before federal, Navajo Nation, and state courts and administrative tribunals in a variety of subject areas, including natural resources, public safety, and jurisdictional issues, with some work with Navajo Nation government programs on labor and employment matters. Current active state bar licensure in any state is required, with the expectation that within a year of hire, the applicant will obtain licensure in the Navajo Nation as well as one of the following states: Arizona, New Mexico or Utah. Preferred qualifications are current membership in good standing in the Arizona, New Mexico, or Utah State Bar Association and the Navajo Nation Bar Association and at least two (2) years experience in drafting pleadings or other court documents and/or appearing in court. One (1) year may be fulfilled through a judicial clerkship, with preference for a federal clerkship, whether district court or appellate level.

Please direct applicant packets consisting of (1) Letter of Interest with current address, telephone numbers, and e-mail address; (2) Navajo Nation employment application; (3) resume; (4) recent legal writing sample; (5) copy of bar membership certificates; and (6) law school graduation documents to Navajo Nation Department of Justice, Attention: Paul Spruhan, Assistant Attorney General, Litigation and Employment Unit, P.O. Box 2010, Window Rock, AZ 86515.

Please visit <http://www.dpm.navajo-nsn.gov/jobs.html> to obtain a copy of the Navajo Nation employment application. This is position number 202220 on the Navajo Nation's Job Vacancy Announcement document to be issued on November 18, 2013. Applications are currently being accepted. For any questions, please contact Paul Spruhan at 928/871-6937. The position will be available in late December, 2013.

The Navajo Nation Department of Justice complies with the Navajo Preference in Employment Act. This position is open until filled.
