2. What are the facts of your case?

- I' The Appellant is a descendant of a full-blooded Native Hawaiian,

 Alii line (see Exhibit A) and Beneficiary of the Native Hawaiian Trust Fund established by the Hawaii Admission Act of 1959.

- 2 The Appellant requested a reasonable amount of Trust Funds for transportation and accommodations to Washington DC to meet with Senators and Congressional Representatives to obtain support and resources to advance Native Hawaiian self-determination and governance with a model of Queen Liliuokalanl's administration of I893.

 (see Exhibit B). The Appellant also requested Hawaiian Elec. Funds
- 3 The Appellant's requests went unanswered.
- 4 About February of 2006, the Appellant not having received a response called and spoke with a representative of OHA who said that ORA's policy is not to provide funds for political action of such entities or in other words sovereignity entities.
- 4 The Appellee(s) not only refused to provide Trust Funds, but also refused to reply.
- 5 Such lack of funds has not helped the Appellant's previously described aims, has stymied such efforts and aims, and has contributed to weaken and d age the Ap ellant's organi tional structure and those of other Native Hawaiians with similar aims and efforts and who have also been treated similarly by OHA.
- 6 The Appellee(s) is a Hawaii State political agency which looks out for the interests of the State.

- 7 The Akaka Bill and its' passage through Congress would maintian the State of Hawaii's jurisdiction, authority, and control over Native Hawaiians and whatever governing or associated established entity.
- 8 OHA, the Appellee(s), supports the Akaka Bill.
- 9 OHA has been using the Trust Fund to support the Akaka Bill and and Native Hawaiians and associated entities supporting the Akaka Bill
- IO OHA doesn't support and fund Native Hawaiians and associated entities not supporting the Akaka Bill and are sovereignity entities.
- II The Appellant advances an alternative entity to the Akaka Bill and, along with numerous other Native Hawaiians, doesn't receive funding from the Trust Fund from OHA. They don't support State control.
- The Appellant, also representing the efforts and aims of many other Native Hawaiians and serving as Prime Minister of the Interim Government of The Kingdom of Hawaii, which includes all major islands of Hawaii, which is comprised of 24 Representatives of the Representative Assembly and 24 Nobles of the House of Nobles with several Nobles being descendants of the original House of Nobles. of The Hawaiian Kingdom, which advances Native Hawaiian self-determination and governance in keeping with the stated purposes for which the Native Hawaiian Trust Fund is: to be used as stated in the Admission Act of 1959, Pub. L. 86-3, 73 Stat. 4, represents more then himself and his cause, claims, and results are imnortant and serious (See Exhibit C).

- 13 The Appellant is a Representative of a governing entity and Beneficiary of the Native Hawaiian Trust Fund with "special interest", beyond that of an ordinary Beneficiary or citizen and has a right to be treated as such and may sue to enforce a public charitable trust or, in other words, the Native Hawaiian Trust Fund (See Keaukaha II, 739 F. 2d at I492, Akaka I, 928F. 2d at 829, and Price v. Akaka I3 F. 3d I220, I222 (9th Circ. 1993), 42 U.S.C Sec. I983. The Appellee(s) overlook and dismiss such a right and treat the Appellant and what he is doing without such rightful regard as demonstrated in Amsterdam v. Apoliona, et al., CV no. I0-00525 DAE BMK; Order: Granting Defendants' Motion for Judgement on the Pleadings, 2/27/2012, Pages I5, I7, I8.
- I4 The Appellee(s) and as seen in the Court's order has treated and characterized the Appellant as an inconsequential individual, whose actions, cause, and claims are frivilous and with a ridiculous impact or result as seen in Amsterdam v. Apoliana et al., CV no. IO-00525 DAE BMK; Order: Granting Defendants' Motion for Judgement on the Pleadings, 2/27/2012, pages 15, 17, 18.
- 15 The Appellant has endeavored to contact and speak with the Appellee(s) and their Counsel during this case many times as seen in the enclosed communication (See Exhibit D) of 8/07/2012. This was done with the Spirit of Aloha in order to resolve this matter and case out of Court. The Appellee(s) and such refused to communicate with the Appellant and he was unsuccessful in his endeavors. Such dismissive actions by the Appellee(s) has been characteristic of their behavior and demonstrated before and during this case.
- The Appellant and Native Hawaiians not supporting the Akaka Bill and State control of a Native Hawaiian governing entity and have an alternative model of a governing entity to the Akaka Bill represent or are of such a particular classification, category, or group. They don't get funds from The Native Hawaiian Trust Fund to advance their model or particuarly the Appellant's model.
- 17 The Appellant has been the object of such treatment, rejection, and dismissal and consequently filed a complaint against the Appellee(s) with claims of having been sujected to violations of First Amendment Rights of Free Speech, Fourteenth Amendment Rights of Equal Protection, and Breach of Trust of the Fiduciary Responsibility of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, the Appellee(s). Such action was originated IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF HAWAII. With God's help and determining that the Judge in the District Court overlooked and did not sufficiently assess and rule on the case, the Appellant appealed the case to the UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT for Justice in this very important matter.

Case: 12-15672 10/15/2012 ID: 8371065 DktEntry: 11 Page: 5 of 22 oc

3. What did you ask the originating court to do (for example, award damages, give injunctive relief, etc.)?

As a Beneficiary with special interest the Appellant asked the originating court toraward the Plaintiffr (Appellant) with the original request made to the Defendants or, in other words, to order the Defendants to do so. The award was reasonable funds for transportation and accommodations to Washington DC in order to advance Native Hawaiian self-determination and governance by meeting, visiting, and speaking with Senators and Representatives of Congress and illicit their understanding, support, and resources to fulfill this important aim. Likewise, funds were requested to advance elections within our Hawaiian community to to elect Hawaiian leaders to also achieve the aim.

- 4. State the claim or claims you raised at the originating court.

 The Appellant's claims basically are presented in Section. The Appellee(s) arbitrarily chose a model of governance to impose on Native Hawaiians without their having chosen it. This model is presented in the Akaka Bill and maintains State control over the governing entity and Native Hawaiians. Hawaiians supporting the Akaka Bill OHA model received funds, but non-supporting sovereignity activists entities were categorized, dismissed, and not given funds. Meanwhile, OHA also kept its control over Native Hawaiians. Accordingly, the Appellant claimmed such treatment to be discriminatory in violation of the First and Fouteenth Amendments of the US Constitution.
- 5. What issues are you raising on appeal? What do you think the originating court did wrong?

The Appellant is raising the issue of discrimination as claimmed in Section 4 of the Appeal. The originating court overlooked and wrongfully dismissed the seriousness of the case's claim as exemplified in the Judge telling the Plaintiff as presented on the transcript if he didn't like what OHA did, he should run for OHA office. It would be like a Judge telling Rosa Parks if she didn't like sitting in the back of the bus, she should buy the bus company. The Judge's action condoned the discriminatory action of a Hawaii State Agency against the Appellant and other cateporized Native Hawaiians.

the Appellee(s) went beyond good reasoning and discernment in their treatment and dismissal of the Appellant who requests the Court's help for Justice to award his initial request by reversing the original court's decision.

6. Did you present all issues listed in #5 to the originating court?

Yes If not, why not?

Yes/No

Although the issue(s) was presented to the originating court, the Judge had already determined his outlook and was not interested in what the Plaintiff had to say. He used what the field of Education calls "a self-fulfilling prophecy". Accordingly, while a necessary issue was presented, all issues were not sufficiently presented.

7. What law supports these issues on appeal?

(You may, but need not, refer to cases and statutes.)

The Appellant presents that the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteeth Amendment supports these issues on appeal. The Appellee(s) intentionally and arbitrarily discriminated against the Appellant by intentionally and arbitrarily choosing a governing model as presented by the Akaka Bill and imposing it on Hawaiians without they're having chosen it. While OHA is suppose to encourage Hawaiian self-determination, the Appellee(s) instead prevent such action and impose their OHA-determination. Applicable cases on point include Vill. of Willowbrook v. Olech, 528 U.S. 562, 564 (2000) (per curiam) quoting Sioux City Bridge Co. v. Dakota County, 260 U.S. 44I, 445 (1923)); Martin v. Shawano-Gresham Sch. Dist., 295 F. 3d 70I, 7I3-I4 (7th Cir. 2002). The categorization of the Appellant and similar Hawaiians intentionally treating them differently without a rational relationship to their legitimate state purpose of self-determination and governance is discriminatory and violates the Equal Protection Clause as supported by cases on point and laws including the Civil Rights Act of I964 (42 U.S.C.A. Section 2000d et seq.), or the provisions of any other Federal Statutes prohibiting discrimination by recipients of federal financial assistance, the law supporting civil unions in Hawaii, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, High Tech Gays v. Def Indus. Sec. Clearance Office, 895 F. 2d 563, 570 (9th Cir. 1990) (citing City of Cleburne v. Cleburne Living Ctr., 473 U.S. 432, 439(1985 Case: 12-15672 10/15/2012 ID: 8371065 DktEntry: 11 Page: 8 of 22

Mr. Amsterdam,

Sorry to be so blunt, but your case is frivolous as determined by the federal courts, so there is nothing further for us to discuss. Please discontinue attempting to schedule a meeting and/or bothering my secretary. My client, the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, has the authority and legal responsibility to administer the trust funds as it sees fit within the bounds of the law. They have done so. The courts will not and cannot order OHA to pay you any funds; that is solely a decision for the Trustees to make. Truly yours, RGK
