UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,

 Plaintiff,

 v.

PASKENTA BAND OF NOMLAKI
INDIANS, a federally recognized
Indiantribe,

 Defendant.

No. 2:14-CV-01449 KJM CMK

ORDER

On July 7, 2014, the court granted the plaintiff’s motion for a preliminary injunction in this case, enjoining the Paskenta Band of Nomlaki Indians from

1. Attempting to disturb, modify or otherwise change the circumstances currently in effect with respect to operation of the Rolling Hills Casino in Corning, California.
2. Deploying any armed personnel of any nature within 100 yards from the Casino, the property on which the Casino is located, and tribal properties surrounding the Casino including the nearby hotels, gas station, and RV park (collectively, Tribal Properties).
3. Possessing, carrying, displaying, or otherwise having firearms on the Tribal Properties.

Order at 3, ECF No. 30.

On October 1, 2014, the plaintiff filed a request for dismissal of this action without prejudice and dissolution of the preliminary injunction entered on July 7, 2014. ECF No. 32. The

1 plaintiff reported in that request that “[t]he Paskenta Bank of Nomlaki Indians appears to have
2 cured its alleged breach of compact, and no imminent threat to the public health, safety, and
3 welfare presently exists.” Id.

4 On October 2, 2014, the court issued a minute order vacating the status conference
5 set for the same day and requiring any opposition to the plaintiff’s request for dismissal be filed
6 by October 24, 2014, any reply to be filed by October 31, 2014. ECF No. 33.

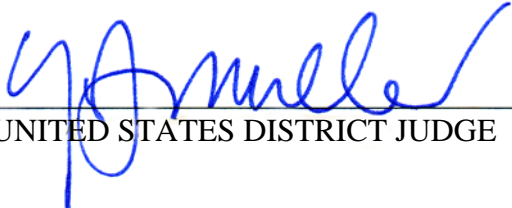

7 On October 2, 2014, a group of the Paskenta Band of Nomlaki Indians,
8 represented by McGregor Scott and Jonathan G. Riddell, gave notice of the voluntary dismissal of 9 its third-party complaint against Andrew Freeman, represented by Alex Anthony Lozada and 10 Robert A. Rosette, without prejudice. ECF No. 34.

11 No party filed an opposition to the plaintiff’s request for dismissal by the October
12 24, 2014 deadline.

13 Because it appears that no party objects to the plaintiff’s request for dismissal
14 without prejudice, and the third-party complaint has been dismissed, the court dismisses this 15 action without prejudice under Rule 41(a)(2). The preliminary injunction, ECF No. 30, is 16 dissolved and no longer remains in effect.

17 IT IS SO ORDERED.

18 DATED: October 28, 2014.
