

BUILDING BUSINESS IN INDIAN COUNTRY - JULY 8TH, 9TH & 10TH
SEATTLE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
SUMMER PRACTICE ACADEMY - INDIAN LAW CERTIFICATE PROGRAM
13.75 CLE CREDITS

- Governance of Business Entities – Best Options and Their Consequences
Faculty - Kelly Croman, Tribal Attorney for the Chehalis Tribe, Oakville, Washington
- Building in Indian Country: Understanding and Successfully Navigating Construction Contracts
Faculty – Steven J.W. Heeley, Advisor, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, Washington, D.C.
- The Art of the Deal in Indian Country: Effective Negotiation, Mediation and Arbitration Options, Skills, Tactics and Strategies
Faculty – John Sledd and Ethel Branch, Kanji & Katzen P.L.L.C., Seattle, Washington
- Land Acquisition for Gaming On and Off-Reservation in the Era of Carcieri and Patchak
Faculty – V. Heather Sibbison, George Skibine and Suzanne R. Schaeffer, Dentons, Washington, D.C.
- Powering Your Business: Developing, Constructing and Financing Alternative Energy Projects in Indian Country
Faculty – Doug MacCourt, Ater Wynne LLP, Portland, Oregon

Register Now At:

<http://www.law.seattleu.edu/continuing-legal-education/summer-practice-academy-2015/indian-law-certificate-program>