

American Indian Justice Conference

Catoosa, Oklahoma

Preconference May 12, 2015 | Conference May 13-14, 2015

Conference Description

This year's national conference offers you the opportunity to learn about relevant issues affecting your community while interacting with other tribal community professionals.

Listen and share strategies with tribal community professionals, practitioners, and technical assistance providers while addressing the multi-disciplinary and multi-jurisdictional approaches for building strong tribal justice systems. We will also focus on court development, drug and alcohol abuse, probation and parole, SORNA Implementation, and other relevant topics. There is no fee to attend the conference.

Conference Objectives

Upon completion of this training, participants will:

- Gain knowledge of new approaches and implementable strategies to build strong and sustainable tribal justice systems.
- Discover what programs other tribes are using to create a positive impact in their community justice system.
- Learn more about the emerging issues that are relevant to tribal justice system development.

Regional Training

Join us for the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA) regional training. This year's topics include:

- The Basics of SORNA
- Sex Offender Absconder Investigations and Working with the U.S. Marshal's Office Registration Safety Consideration and Strategies
- Relationship Building – Tribal, Federal, State, and Local levels
- Program Planning and Sustainability

Who Should Attend

- All federally recognized tribe affiliates working in courts, law enforcement, prosecution, probation, corrections, treatment, SORNA, and social service programs.
- BJA grantees funded through the Tribal Court Assistance Program (TCAP) and the Indian Alcohol and Substance Abuse Program (IASAP).

This project was supported by Grant No. 2013-AC-BX-K001 awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance.
