8 Comes now defendant's who move this court for a
9 dismissal for the following causes.

10 INTRODUCTION

11 KPMG's client Koniag Inc and KPMG's attorney James 12 Torgerson freely admit that Koniag Inc is engaged in 13 ongoing securities fraud against the people of the 14 United States. KPMG LLP is a active participant in 15 Koniag Inc's fraud and has filled an action in Federal 16 Court in an attempt to conceal their crime of 17 accounting fraud. It is for those reason that 18 Defendants request that this case be dismissed.

19 JURISDICTION

20 The Karluk Tribal Court is Federally recognized

1 Indian tribe whose reservation is recognized by 25 CFR
2 245.5. the Karluk Tribal Court shares concurrent
3 jurisdiction with United States circuit court. The 4 Karluk Tribe has a duty to protect the American people
5 from the ongoing fraud of KPMG and per the False Claims
6 ct and the Declaratory Judgments Act.

7 FRAUD

8 It is controverted that Koniag Inc s December 10, 9 1980 merger of NU-Nachk pit and Karluk Native Corp into 10 Koniag Inc. contains securities fraud. (ATTACHMENT A) 11 and that it is being used to defraud millions of 12 dollars from the people of the United States per July 13 31, 2002 Master agreement for certain lands and 14 resources between Koniag Inc and the State of Alaska.
15 KPMG has certified a finical statement that Koniag's
16 19080 merger is valid when all parties admit that it
17 contains securities fraud.

18 It is for the above reasons that Kurt Kanam and Orbie
Mullins respectfully request that this court dismiss
