

ATTORNEY POSITION AVAILABLE

A Denver Based Law Firm
With a National Indian, Housing and International Practice

Wagenlander & Heisterkamp, LLC, a Denver, Colorado based forty-year year old law firm, is announcing an attorney opening. Applicants must contact the firm and forward résumés in person, by fax or through email no later than May 20, 2016.

Wagenlander & Heisterkamp is a small cross-cultural law firm that concentrates its national practice in the areas of American Indian, low-income housing, and international law. A majority of its practice involves representing a large number of tribal and public housing agencies at the local, regional, and national levels. Its international focus involves the country of Mongolia. The firm's primary office is in downtown Denver and the firm has been at the same location since 1988. Indian preference is provided in the selection process.

If interested in these positions, please contact one of the firm's managing shareholders, Jim Wagenlander (wagenlander@wagenlander.com) or Dave Heisterkamp (davidvh@wagenlander.com) or the firm at wagenlan@wagenlander.com / 303-832-6511 / fax: 303-830-2246 / 1700 Broadway, Suite 1202, Denver, CO 80290

Associate Attorney Attorney with 3-5 years of Practice Experience (Wagenlander & Heisterkamp, LLC)

There is an immediate opening for an Associate Attorney. This is for an attorney at least three years legal practice experience. Salary is commensurate with such an experience level and being a small firm. Travel will be required. Applicants must be licensed and in good standing in Colorado or willing to take the next available state bar exam at own expense. An attorney with interest in Indian, international or cross-cultural issues is being sought. Applicants should be self-starters who want to be immediately and directly engaged with the firm's long-time clients. Some litigation primarily in tribal and federal court will occur from time-to-time, but the position mostly involves general counsel work including policy making, contracting, dispute resolution and public policy development. Indian preference in hiring is given. Starting salary up to $61,000 D.O.E. with health insurance and retirement savings benefits when qualified. Bonus possibility at year-end. An opportunity to develop into a firm partner is always offered by the firm to its attorneys and is dependent on achievement, compatibility and commitment to law and the firm.
