Training Information

Please select all that apply to Training Registrant:

Tribal Leader	Judge	Defense Counsel
Prosecutor	Bar License	Law School degree
Other

Is your Tribe actively exercising special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction? (i.e., Tribe has implemented code provisions, community is on notice, law enforcement will arrest, prosecutor's office has at least one case and/or law enforcement has made arrests)

Yes No

If your Tribe is NOT actively exercising special domestic violence criminal jurisdiction, where is your Tribe in implementation? Select the description that best fits:

Early Stages (i.e., Tribal Council and/or Community still discussing it, tribal constitution needs amendment, referendum vote needs to occur, etc.)

Intermediate Stages (i.e., Tribal Council has voiced support and/or passed resolution, actively updating code provisions and policies, collaborating with other tribes, U.S. Attorney's Office, local and/or county agencies on planning, jury pool selection - incorporating non-Indians in the community, etc.)

Advanced Stages (i.e., codes and policies updated, notice out to community that tribal law enforcement will arrest, only one or two things to do)

READY (i.e, Tribe and its law enforcement ready to prosecute offenders but no arrests or cases yet)

Other

Identify your Tribe's top training needs regarding VAWA's Special Domestic Violence Criminal Jurisdiction (and/or TLOA Extended Sentencing):

Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women Grantee?

Please contact your DOJ-OVW grant specialist ASAP to seek approval to use your OVW grant funding to attend this Training.
