

Tribal Law and Economic Development

Join NMU alumna, Jana Simmons, Attorney at Law for an engaging conversation.

Native Entrepreneurs - Sparking New Ideas and Markets

Native Know-How and Attracting Business Partners

Tribal Law and Building Better Reservation Economies

Wednesday, September 21 at 7 p.m.

Whitman Hall Commons | NMU Campus

Reception to follow.

This event is a presentation of the NMU Center for Native American Studies and the NMU Center for Rural Community and Economic Development. Special thanks to the NMU Office of the President, the NMU Diversity and Inclusion Office, the NMU Foundation, and the NMU Alumni Association. The reception is made possible by Wilson Elser Moskowitz Edelman & Dicker LLP.

For more information call 906-227-1397 or visit nmu.edu/cnas

Northern Michigan University
Marquette, Michigan