

THE INDIGENOUS RIGHTS MOVEMENT

Tribal, Domestic & International Law Dimensions

October 13th-14th, 2016
Harvard Law School

Milstein West, Wasserstein Hall, Second Floor

Join us in dialogue to examine the indigenous rights movement, from opposition to the Dakota Pipeline, to Supreme Court litigation, and international human rights advocacy. Speakers include tribal leaders, legal scholars, government lawyers, and international diplomats.

This event is free and open to the public, and no pre-registration is required.
