&
THIRD TRIBAL IN-HOUSE COUNSEL ASSOCIATION LAW CONFERENCE
@
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF LAW
INDIGENOUS LAW AND POLICY CENTER

OCTOBER 26-27, 2017
EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN

TICA members interested in presenting on the following topics focusing on the tribal in-house practice of law are invited to submit proposals:

- Tribal regulatory structures.
- Federal-tribal relations.
- State-tribal relations.
- Indian child welfare.
- Internal conflicts of interest.
- Working with outside counsel.
- Internal control systems.
- Jurisdiction.
- International standards and traditional knowledge.
- Professional responsibility and ethical obligations.

Deadline for formal proposals is February 15, 2017. Please keep proposals to 300 words or less.

Want to present but aren't a member? Become a TICA member at www.tribalinhousecounsel.com.

MSU may cover reasonable travel expenses for speakers selected for the conference, upon request and depending on available funds. We will be applying for CLE credits for the conference and so speakers must prepare written materials. MSU can provide research support for speakers in preparing materials, if requested.
