The Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation (CTUIR) seeks proposals that would provide Will and Estate Planning legal services (Program) directly to CTUIR members (Client). The Program is a pass-through contract administered by the CTUIR Office of Legal Counsel.

The CTUIR Comprehensive Plan Element 5.3 Land Base Restoration Objectives include encouraging tribal member land ownership and reduce fractionated land ownership. The goals of this Program are to encourage that trust property be devised to CTUIR members without further fractionalization or leaving trust status through BIA probate process. The Program provides individual Clients with legal services that result in completion and confidential filing of a will and estate-planning documents with the CTUIR Enrollment Office.

Services include meeting with individual Clients, advising and drafting estate planning to address Client trust land and other property they may own, visiting the Client to complete this work, accessing or coordinating with federal and tribal agencies related to the completion of the will drafting, and causing the documents to be filed with the CTUIR Enrollment Office.

Bidders are encouraged to provide flexible proposals. The CTUIR advertised an RFP in 2014. The proposals exceeded available funding, and no selection was made. Currently the CTUIR uses a 10 week internship program, which averages 25 wills and estate planning packages annually.
