RE: Cause No. 13-35759, Supplemental Authority

FILED _____
DOCKETED _____
DATE _____ INITIAL _____

FROM: Orbie Mullens and Kurt Kanem

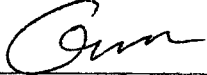

Pursuant to FRAP 28(j), we write to notify the Court of supplemental Authority: Three State Court judgements duly filed in the Thurston County Superior Court of the State of Washington. (see attached)

As Defendants-Appellees in Cause No. 13-35759 argued in their brief at page 3, the federal Courts lack jurisdiction to alter or amend the actions or decrees of other sovereign entities, which are entitled to comity and the respect due co-equal sovereigns under the Republican form of Government guaranteed by the Guarantee Clause of the Constitution of the United States of America, all of which is made binding under the Supremacy Clause¹.

Accordingly, under the 10th and 11th Amendments², the federal Courts lack jurisdiction to alter or amend these duly filed State Court Judgments which have already adjudicated the issues between Koniag and the Karluk Tribe.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Orbie Mullens

Kurt Kanem

¹ This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding.

² The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people.
