Mattawan, MI — Rosette, LLP, a majority – Indian owned national law firm, specializing in the practice of federal Indian law, is pleased to announce that Associate Attorney Tanya Gibbs, a descendant of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, has been elected to our partnership. Since joining Rosette in 2013, Tanya has focused her practice on non-gaming economic development by representing tribally-owned companies that further the economic diversification and self-determination of their respective tribes. Her representation spans a variety of industries ranging from traditional brick and mortar environments to e-commerce. Tanya's professionalism and business acumen has played an integral part of our clients' success. Her specialty practice areas include mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance and assisting her clients to achieve their investment goals.

In addition to her role/responsibilities with the firm, Tanya serves in a leadership capacity on the Council of the American Indian Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan, currently as Section Chairperson, and on the Board of Directors of Odawa Economic Development Management, Inc., a tribally chartered corporation of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, and non-profit boards in her community. Tanya was recently nominated as one of the Grand Rapids Business Journal's 50 Most Influential Women in West Michigan for her commitment to her community and Indian Country as a whole.

Tanya earned her J.D. from Western Michigan University Cooley Law School in 2013 and a Bachelor of Art from Michigan State University in 2010.
