

SONOSKY, CHAMBERS SEEKS 2019 SUMMER ASSOCIATES

Sonosky, Chambers, Sachse, Endreson, & Perry LLP is a national law firm dedicated to representing Native American interests in a wide range of endeavors including trial and appellate litigation, federal Indian law, tribal law, Indian self-determination and self-governance matters, transportation and infrastructure, natural resources, and economic development, among others. The firm's practice includes representation of tribal interests in federal, tribal and state courts, and before Congress, state legislatures, and federal and state agencies.

We are currently recruiting 2L students for 2019 summer associate positions. Interested applicants can apply by submitting the following materials online at <http://www.sonosky.com/careers-attys.html>:

- Cover letter
- Resume
- Transcript
- Writing sample*

Interested applicants should apply no later than August 31, 2018. Thank you for your interest.

* A writing sample relevant to our practice area is preferred, but not necessary.

