Do you want to incorporate sober support requirements in your court orders for people who are substance users, but don't know much about sober support? Are you interested in unique sober support options? Join us for our next FREE webinar on Sober Support in Tribal Communities to learn more!

People in recovery do better at maintaining their sobriety over a long period of time when they have "sober support." This webinar will explore sober support options for use in Tribal Communities from the 12-step models to more "homegrown" models that incorporate traditional cultural practices to help those in recovery maintain sobriety.

Moderators:

- Ansley Sherman (Muscogee (Creek)), Program Attorney, National American Indian Court Judges Association

Faculty Presenter:

- Trina Hart, Gila River Indian Community
- Kim M. McGinnis, PhD, Chief Judge, Pueblo of Pojoaque
