Michigan Indian Legal Services (MILS), a statewide provider of free legal services to low income Indians and Indian tribes, seeks three summer legal interns/externs (Traverse City and Southwestern Michigan). One position will be based out of tribal offices in Southwestern Michigan and assist an attorney providing on-site services to tribal members (e.g., estate planning, guardianship matters, tribal court criminal cases). One intern in the Traverse City office will focus on two tribal domestic violence/human trafficking projects. One intern in the Traverse City office will provide direct assistance to clients under the supervision of two attorneys. MILS represents Indian individuals, families, tribes and organizations in cases that span the complete range of federal Indian law and tribal representation. MILS is an equal opportunity employer.
