MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Erin Fisher, Richard Fisher, and Erin Fisher, as Next Friend and Natural Mother of Minor Child, A.C. (collectively “Plaintiffs”), for their motion for temporary restraining order state as follows:

1. Plaintiffs filed the instant lawsuit asking this Court to declare that ICWA §§ 1912(d), (f), 1914, 1915(a), and the 2016 Regulations implementing these provisions, do not apply in purely private actions for termination of parental rights and stepparent adoptions like this one.

2. Plaintiffs further requested a declaration that such an application of ICWA is unconstitutional under the Equal Protection and Due Process provisions of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the Privileges or Immunities Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.

3. Plaintiffs requested that this Court permanently enjoin Defendants from invoking ICWA §§ 1912(d), (f), 1914, 1915(a), and the 2016 Regulations, in response to any private termination and stepparent adoption matter that Plaintiffs should choose to file.

4. Defendant Jason Cook recently filed a motion in state court seeking – after more than two years without any contact – to reinstate visitation rights with A.C.

5. Plaintiffs move that the Court enter a temporary restraining order stating that ICWA does not require visitation to commence in such a private family dispute, or in the alternative, preventing Cook from seeking visitation until this Court determines the applicability or constitutionality of ICWA.

6. Allowing Cook to suddenly reappear in A.C.'s life will certainly cause severe emotional harm to a child, his mother, and the person he considers his dad.

7. The harm to the Fisher family is far greater than to Cook, who has made little effort over A.C.'s life to be involved.

8. The Fisher family will likely be successful on the merits of their claim that ICWA does not apply here, or is unconstitutional, and thus there will be no reason for Cook to have visitation.

9. The public interest of protecting a vulnerable child and his family is far more important than reinstating visitation rights for an unknown amount of time while the question of the applicability of ICWA weaves its way through the court system.

10. In support of this motion, Plaintiffs rely upon the affidavit of Erin Fisher, which is attached as an Exhibit hereto, and an accompanying memorandum of law, which are both incorporated by reference in their entirety herein.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs further pray that the Court enter a temporary restraining order stating that ICWA does not require visitation to commence in such a private family dispute, or in the alternative, preventing Cook from seeking visitation until this Court determines the applicability or constitutionality of ICWA, and for such further and additional relief as this Court may deem appropriate.

DEFENDANTS

AFFIDAVIT OF ERIN FISHER

I, Erin Fisher, having been duly sworn, do hereby state the following under oath:

1. My name is Erin Fisher. I married Jason Cook on September 25, 2004. Jason and I separated November 26, 2010 and divorced on August 3, 2011. I have attached a copy of our Decree of Divorce as Exhibit 1.
2. I became pregnant with our child, A.C., in August 2008. During the pregnancy, Jason had minimal contact with me. He worked away from home and lived separately from me.
3. He was absent from my life and did not attend any doctor's appointments or checkups during the pregnancy.
4. My son, A.C., was born May 14, 2009.
5. Before the pregnancy, Jason commenced an extramarital affair that continued throughout our marriage.

6. After we separated in November 2010, Jason no longer provided financial support for me or A.C. At the time, I was a full-time nursing student, I supported myself and A.C. by exhausting my savings.

7. Per the divorce decree, Jason was permitted to visit with A.C. every third weekend; however, Jason routinely didn't exercise his visitation rights. Ex. 1 at 2.

8. In March 2016, after Jason was arrested on drug charges, the court entered an Emergency Ex Parte order for supervised visits with Jason's mother present every Wednesday evening for three hours and every other Saturday for 5 hours. I have attached a copy of this Order as Exhibit 2.

9. Jason cancelled six visits between March 23, 2016 and August 10, 2016. All visits were cancelled by Jason after August 17, 2016.

10. A.C. has few, if any, fond memories from visitation with Jason. For example, during supervised visitation, Jason's mother left A.C. alone with Jason so that she and her husband could go out for dinner. When I arrived to pick him up, A.C. was visibly upset. He told me that he was left alone with Jason and was upset because he knew that was against the rules. Later that evening, Jason's mother confirmed A.C.'s account of the day.

11. A.C.'s memories of Jason are mostly of times that Jason slept on the couch the entire visit. If not asleep, Jason would leave A.C. to go outside and smoke cigarettes or play on his phone.

12. Prior to the supervised visits, A.C. recalls a time that Jason locked him in a bedroom while his "friends" came over. His friends stayed and smoked inside the apartment while A.C. remained locked in a back bedroom. A.C. still remembers the smell of the smoke, the noise, and commotion from that day.

13. I learned from my review of public records that Jason was incarcerated from March 2017 to October 2018. I have attached a copy of Jason's Sebastian County Inmate Summary as Exhibit

3 and his Sebastian County Custody Record as Exhibit 4. Jason has made no attempt to visit A.C. since his release from jail in October 2018.

14. Jason has only tried calling A.C. a handful of times over his entire ten years of life.

15. I learned from my review of public records that in April 2016, Jason was arrested in Arkansas for contempt of court for failure to pay child support to me. Ex. 3. He was arrested again for contempt of court for failure to pay child support on February 1, 2017. Ex. 3.

16. Jason has not consistently paid child support to me and has not paid any child support for a period of 28 months, which includes 24 consecutive months from November 2016 to November 2018. However, I received $1,500 on February 10, 2017 from his bond for contempt of court. I have attached a copy of his Child Support Verification as Exhibit 5.

17. In February 2016, A.C. and I were visited by a state social worker from the Arkansas Department of Human Services. DHS was investigating Jason's relationship with his other known child, born out of wedlock to the same person he had an affair with during my pregnancy. I learned from the social worker that his other child was found to be neglected by Jason.

18. I began dating Richard Fisher in June 2012, and we were married June 28, 2013.

19. Richard and A.C. have a steadfast father-child bond, as Richard is the only father A.C. has ever known. A.C. began referring to Richard as "daddy" in 2014. A.C. only refers to Jason by his first name.

20. Richard Fisher has been a father to A.C. through every major milestone in A.C.'s life, as far back as seeing him off for his first day of 3-year-old preschool at Christ the King School on August 16, 2012. Richard, A.C., and I celebrate all holidays together and take vacations together as any family would.

21. Richard has been an integral part of A.C.'s participation in sports, including soccer, baseball, and swimming. Richard helped coach A.C.'s Little League baseball team and taught A.C. how to swim. A.C. has since competed in multiple swim meets in Arkansas. In 2015, Richard taught A.C. how to ride a horse.

22. Richard takes an active interest in A.C.'s education. He helps him with school projects and homework.

23. In June 2016, we had a son, with whom A.C. shares a strong sibling bond.

24. There is no relationship to reestablish or reunify between Jason and A.C. Visitation would be psychologically damaging, as A.C. is terrified of seeing Jason. When I told A.C. that Jason had been released from prison he became very upset and started crying. A.C. is genuinely scared that Jason will come to our home or to his school in an effort to see him.

Further affiant sayeth not.

The foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.
