

Godfrey & Kahn, S.C.

At Godfrey & Kahn, we believe in client success, trust, teamwork, work ethic and integrity. We support these core values by hiring talented and self-motivated people to assist our clients. We also happen to provide excellent legal solutions. Are you ready to make a move?

Accepting Applications for an Associate

Currently, we are accepting applications for an associate with a minimum 2 years of general environmental or energy experience. We seek candidates who are prepared to help our clients develop and implement innovative environmental and energy solutions to achieve their goals for a wide variety of projects. Candidates must possess strong academic credentials, an interest in environmental and energy solutions, including sustainability matters, excellent judgment and project management commensurate with years of experience.

Most importantly, we are looking for individuals who bring a positive attitude and team-focused approach to their work. In addition to an excellent compensation and benefit package, we offer an award-winning work environment and the opportunity to work with clients doing business both locally and around the globe.

The firm has a significant Indian country practice. Tribal affiliation and experience representing Indian tribes are desirable.
