

Udall Scholarship for Undergraduates

www.udall.gov

$7,000 Scholarship for Native American students

If you're committed to applying your education and training to solving problems in Indian country, check out the Udall Scholarship and join our growing alumni network of community leaders in Indian country.

$7,000 scholarships are available each year for undergraduate sophomore and junior Native American/Alaska Native/First Nations students who want to give back to Indian country. Eligible fields of study include but are not limited to:

- education
- economic development
- natural resources/ wildlife
- language preservation
- housing
- journalism/ media
- renewable energy
- health care
- social work
- traditional and modern arts
- public health
- Indian law
- sovereignty and self-determination
- gaming
- criminal justice
- child welfare
- sustainable development
- elder care
- ...

Candidates must demonstrate commitment to Indian country through leadership activities, public service (paid or unpaid), and cultural/ community involvement. GPA is not a factor, but students should be engaged in challenging coursework that supports their career goals.

For more information on campus, contact

Foundation deadline: March 5, 2020. Your campus deadline may be sooner.

Visit udall.gov for alumni profiles and application tips.