

INDIAN LAW ATTORNEY (0-3 years)

Job Description

Rosette LLP is a majority-Indian owned and operated law firm providing legal services to federally-recognized Indian tribes and their governmental entities and agencies nationwide.

We are currently seeking an attorney for the Firm's Oklahoma City office, in Oklahoma, who has zero to three years of relevant experience. Candidates must be a member in good standing of at least the Oklahoma Bar. Preference will be given to attorneys who are licensed in multiple jurisdictions, as well as those who have an established commitment to protecting the interests of federally-recognized Indian Tribes and matters involving Native American heritage, as well as a keen interest and experience in Federal Indian law including in the areas of litigation (in tribal, state and federal courts), transactional law, gaming law, internal tribal governance matters, lobbying, water law and/environmental law.

Qualifications

The ideal candidate must be self-motivated and willing to work in a dynamic atmosphere with minimal supervision. Strong interpersonal, analytical, problem solving, organizational and communication skills are required. Must have the ability to build and maintain strong client relationships. Must be willing to travel and work on client matters throughout the United States.

Compensation

We offer competitive salary and benefits, including health care, 401k, and vacation.

Contact

Please respond to this job posting with your cover letter, resume and writing sample via email to: Jonathon Sanchez at jsanchez@rosettelaw.com or Wyatt Rosette at: wrosette@rosettelaw.com.