

Tribal Attorney

Morongo Band of Mission Indians
Salary Depending on Experience

The Morongo Band of Mission Indians, located near Banning, California is seeking a Tribal Attorney to provide legal counsel on a range of issues as well as representation in tribal and state court regarding matters affecting the Morongo Tribal Government and its various departments, subject to the direction and oversight of the In-House General Counsel. This is an exempt position.

BASIC DUTIES: Under general direction of the In-House Counsel, the Tribal Attorney will be part of the Legal Department's function of delivering legal counsel, advice and support as the legal advisor to the Tribe, including the Tribal Council, General Membership, all Tribal Administrators and department heads, and various committees and commissions.

EXPERIENCE & EDUCATION: Admitted to practice law and in good standing with the California Bar Association. Must have an excellent past work record evidenced by favorable references from past employers, a California State Court Judge, a Federal Judge or Magistrate, or at least two attorneys admitted to practice in the state in which they practice. A Juris Doctor Degree from the American Bar Association accredited law school and active membership with no history of discipline. Five (5) years of legal experience working for an Indian Tribe, or a firm representing Tribal interests, or eight (8) years of legal experience involving Indian law or related areas, preferably with experience in business transactions, construction and commercial development and/or employment and labor law.

APPLY: Submit your resume, letter of interest, and writing samples by email: resumes@morongo-nsn.gov or fax 951-922-0321. Visit our website at www.morongo-nsn.gov for employment application. Interviews are by appointment only. Call 951-755-5180 for more information.