STEPHEN GREETHAM

Senior Counsel
Chickasaw Nation
TICA Vice President

Stephen Greetham serves as Senior Counsel to the Chickasaw Nation. Greetham was previously a partner in the Albuquerque office of the Nordhaus Law Firm, where he specialized in the representation of Tribal governments, but he has worked in-house with the Chickasaw for 12 years. His practice focuses primarily on complex litigation and negotiation matters relating to water and natural resources, taxation, and intergovernmental affairs. He has taught Federal Indian law courses at the University of New Mexico School of Law and Oklahoma University College of Law and will be teaching water law in the fall of 2019 at the Oklahoma City University School of Law. His most recent article—“Water Planning, Tribal Voices, and Creative Approaches: Seeking New Paths Through Tribal-State Water Conflict By Collaboration On State Water Planning Efforts”—appears in the Winter 2018 issue of the Natural Resources Journal.
