

Indian Law Litigation Attorney

Albuquerque based law firm focusing on federal Indian law seeking a licensed associate attorney with 2+ years' litigation experience preferably in the areas of federal Indian law and tribal law. Applicants must be motivated, hard-working, able to work independently and as part of a team, and must be passionate about serving Native American individuals, tribes, pueblos and their business enterprises. Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, three references and a writing sample to Barnhouse Keegan Solimon & West LLP at lvera@indiancountrylaw.com.