

NAVAJO NATION OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

The Navajo Nation Office of Legislative Counsel seeks one Attorney to work under the direction of the Chief Legislative Counsel. Duties include providing legal advice and legal representation to entities of the Legislative Branch, the Navajo Nation Council, its standing committees, boards and commissions involving various areas of law and policy. Work with other attorneys of the Office under supervision of a Principal Attorney and the general direction of the Chief Legislative Counsel. Knowledge of legal principles, as well as Federal Indian law, Navajo Nation laws, Navajo Nation Government and legislative processes in general required. Applicant must be a graduate of an accredited law school with Juris Doctorate; and State Bar Licensed in either AZ, NM, or UT, as well as the Navajo Nation Bar, within one year of employment.

Preference will be given to qualified applicants in accord with the Navajo Preference in Employment Act and Veterans' Preference. Salary range $70,908.48 plus per annum depending upon experience.

Applications must be submitted to the Navajo Nation Department of Personnel Management (NNDPM) on official Navajo Nation Employment Application forms, along with copies of all college of law school transcripts, diplomas, State and Navajo Nation law licenses. A copy of the application packet should be submitted to the Office of Legislative Counsel at the address below.

For more information please, see the position description at www.dpm.navajo-nsn.gov or to apply, applications are accepted via email (apply@dpm.navajo-nsn.gov). Position is open until filled.

Contact Information:

Office of Legislative Counsel
Post Office Box 3390
Window Rock, AZ 86515
Tele: 928/871-7166
Carol Wilson, P&PS
carolwilson@navajo-nsn.gov