E-MAIL PROPOSALS TO: contracts@nndoj.org

- A. Scope of Work: The selected contractor (attorney or law firm) will provide the following services to the Navajo Nation:

Under the direction of the Navajo Nation Attorney General or her designee, the Attorney(s) will provide professional Government Relations and Advocacy services to the Navajo Nation Office of the Attorney General. These services may include monitoring federal legislation, drafting proposed legislation or testimony, working with congressional staff to amend introduced federal legislation, and preparing grant proposals or assisting in fulfilling grant requirements.

The ideal candidate will be familiar with federal statutes and regulations impacting tribal governments and Navajo people. The ideal candidate will also have experience participating in tribal consultations with the federal government, advocating for support of legislation impacting Tribes, and drafting proposed changes to federal laws, regulations, policies, and procedures to promote tribal sovereignty.

- B. Fees: Respondent must describe in detail the hourly rate or other basis by which the Attorney(s) will bill time, and also describe the Attorney(s) timekeeping and invoicing practices.
- C. Conflicts: Respondent must affirmatively state whether the Attorney's former or current representation of clients presents any conflict of interest which might bar undertaking the responsibilities of the Scope of Work. Respondent must also describe the precise nature of any potential conflict. A conflict of interest may include whether Attorney currently represents any other tribes or private interests that may impact the Navajo Nation with respect to contracting, leasing or employment matters against the Navajo Nation and/or Navajo Nation Enterprises.
