

Kanji & Katzen PLLC
Seeking Applications for 2022 Summer Associate Positions

Kanji & Katzen PLLC is a nationally ranked firm of highly experienced attorneys who are committed to protecting and enhancing the sovereignty and vitality of tribal nations and their members. We represent tribes in high stakes litigation, negotiations, and administrative advocacy on a broad range of vital matters. Our mission is to assist clients in protecting their sovereignty and jurisdiction, including their legislative and judicial authority; in vindicating their treaty rights, land claims and reservation boundaries; and in safeguarding and enhancing their authority to engage in natural resources management, environmental protection, gaming and other economic development, and taxation. For more information about the firm, please see our website at www.kanjikatzen.com.

We are currently seeking applications from 2L students for 2022 summer associate positions in our Seattle, WA and Ann Arbor, MI offices. Highly motivated 1Ls may apply as well. Applicants should possess a stellar academic and professional record, excellent research and writing skills, and a commitment to serving tribal nations. Prior coursework in Indian law or experience with tribal communities is also highly valued.
