The Catawba Indian Nation is seeking an individual to provide Bailiff/Security services through this Request for Proposal (RFP). All individuals and businesses are invited to submit qualifications and proposals for the provision of these services.

2. Background

The Catawba Indian Nation is the only federally recognized Indian tribe in the state of South Carolina. The Catawba Indians have lived on their ancestral lands along the banks of the Catawba River dating back at least 6000 years. Before contact with the Europeans it is believed that the tribe inhabited most of the Piedmont area of South Carolina, North Carolina and the southern parts of Virginia. Our 1000-acre reservation is located on two non-contiguous parcels of land approximately eight miles east of Rock Hill, South Carolina, in the center of an area that once comprised Catawba territory.

In 1993, the Catawba's won its fight for federal recognition with the passage of the Catawba Land Claims Settlement Act. The Act not only restored the Federal Trust relationship between the Catawba Nation and the Federal Government but also marked the path for self-governance.

We provide services for approximately 3,000 plus enrolled tribal members in the areas of housing, social services, public works, medical and dental care, economic development, childcare, senior program, cultural preservation and transit.
