SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of : 3 years on each count.

The terms of supervised release on each count are to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release on supervision and to a maximum of 10 periodic drug tests a month thereafter for the term of supervision as directed by the probation officer. The cost to be paid by both the defendant and the government based upon the defendant's ability to pay.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the courts determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
4. ☒ The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
5. ☐ The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he or she resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)
6. ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)
7. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 2248, 2259, 2264, 2327, 3663, 3663A, and 3664. (Check, if applicable.)
8. ☒ You must pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3013.
9. ☐ If this judgment imposes a fine, you must pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.
10. ☒ You must notify the court of any material change in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay restitution, fines, or special assessments.

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Qaya Mikel Gordon
CASE NUMBER: 0976 3:21CR00305-001

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer, unless legitimately asserting your Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination as to new criminal conduct.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

Upon a finding of a violation of supervision or supervised release, I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the Court. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions.

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

The defendant shall pay any special assessment or other financial obligation that is imposed by this judgment in accordance with the Schedule of Payments as ordered by the Court.

The defendant shall submit his or her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for drug and alcohol abuse, as directed by the probation officer. The cost to be paid by both the defendant and the government based upon the defendant's ability to pay.

The defendant shall abstain from the use of alcohol and shall not be present in any location where alcohol is the primary item of sale.

The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer. The cost to be paid by both the defendant and the government based upon the defendant's ability to pay.

As directed by a mental health professional, the defendant shall take all medications as prescribed. The cost of medication to be paid by both the government and the defendant based upon the defendant's ability to pay.

If determined by the results of the Test of Adult Basic Education (TABE) that the defendant has the cognitive ability to do so, the defendant shall obtain their General Education Development (GED) degree or High School Equivalency (HSE) during the term of supervised release. The costs of education and testing shall be paid by the defendant.

The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.

The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer unless the defendant is in compliance with the installment payment schedule.

Participate in a program aimed at addressing specific interpersonal or social areas, specifically for domestic violence and anger management.

The defendant shall have no contact with the identified victims in this case.

Special Conditions of supervised release shall supersede any standard condition that is inconsistent with the special conditions.
